GUIDELINES FOR REMOVAL OF A STUDENT FROM UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL (USC)

Criteria for the removal of a student from the university student council (USC). The aim is to ensure fairness, transparency, and due process in the removal proceedings.

SCOPE

These guidelines apply to all members of the University Student Council.

GROUNDS FOR REMOVAL

A member of the USC may be removed for the following reasons:

- 1. VIOLATION OF UNIVERSITY POLICIES: Engaging in behaviour that violates university policies, including but not limited to academic integrity, harassment, and discrimination.
- 2. FAILURE TO FULFIL RESPONSIBILITIES: Consistently failing to attend meetings, non-participation in council activities, or fulfil assigned duties without prior notification or valid reasons.
- 3. INSUBORDINATION: Disregarding the authority of the council or its leadership, including refusal to follow established procedures or directives.
- 4. CRIMINAL/MISCONDUCT/INDISCIPLINE ACTIVITY: If being involved or charged with any serious criminal offense/misconduct/or any in-disciplinary activity that reflects poorly on the council or university.
- 5. UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT: Engaging in behaviour that is deemed unprofessional or detrimental to the student council's and University reputation.
 - 1. Dues more than one year/two Semester
 - 2. Attendance below 60%

Removal Process

Step 1: Initiation of Removal

- Any Dean/Faculty or member of the USC may initiate a removal request by submitting a written application to the Council Chair or designated authority. The application should outline the specific grounds for removal and include any relevant evidence.

14.10

Step 2: Notification and Right to Appeal

- If the preliminary review finds sufficient grounds, the member subject to removal will be notified in writing of the concerns raised against them. The notification will include details of the allegations and a request for a response within a specified timeframe (typically 07 business days) and will be reviewed by a separate appeals committee.

Confidentiality

All proceedings related to the removal process shall be conducted with confidentiality to protect the privacy of all parties involved, except as required by law.

Record Keeping

All documentation related to the removal process, including petitions, responses, hearing notes, and decisions, will be maintained by the USC for a period of no less than three years.

Final Provisions

These guidelines will be reviewed annually and may be amended as necessary by a majority vote of the University Student Council.
