Introduction:- In order to grace the initiative by honourable Prime Minister Mr.Narendra Modi, about the envisioned Viksit Bharat @2047, approximately 11 students have submitted their feedback and contributed their part in making Bharat a strong and advanced country.

The students suggested their opinions over

- Educational transformation in a dynamic form, with a more practical approach, cultivating a sense of critical thinking and civic duty.
- Healthcare should more of a preventive measure, research oriented and holistic approach, rather than just being a mere act of treating. It should be realized as a fundamental right, accessible to every citizen.
- Sports should be given more importance, embodying and personifying sports as life lessons teaching resilience, teamwork and leadership.
- Nari Shakti is gaining equal importance, being the central spotlight. It shouldn't be trained as gender equality but equity to everyone. ‘
- There should be enhanced investment in infrastructure, training programs and grassroots development in every arena.
- LGBTQ+ should not remain a taboo and the laws should be reinforced.
- Education should be equally accessible and with enhanced quality including STEM education. Digital literacy should be promoted via audio-visual aids, bridging the gap between rural and urban avenues.
- Working policies shall be flexible enabling both women and men to contribute and pursue the desired careers without compromising family responsibilities and maintain a well-balanced personal and professional life.
- International collaborations should be fostered promoting partnerships with international organizations to exchange best practices and support global initiatives enhancing healthcare, women empowerment, technology and education.

Title: Yuvamanthan Model-G20 Event at Subharti Dental College

Date: October 14th 2023

Time: 9 am onwards

Venue: Subharti Dental College, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University

Introduction:

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University organized the Yuvamanthan Model G20, a unique initiative for youth to excel in public speaking, diplomacy, and strategy, on 14th Oct 2023. There were 136 registrations throughout the University, out of which, the summit witnessed the participation of over 20 students acting as leaders and 16 students as the finance ministers of G20 nations

India's assumption of the G20 presidency from December 2022 is a defining moment in its history, aiming to foster pragmatic global solutions and embody the spirit of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' (One Earth - One Family - One Future), the theme of G20. Acknowledging the crucial role of India's youth in an interconnected world, Yuvamanthan Model G20 (YMG20) provides a platform for their inclusion, amplifying their voices on socio-political issues.

Key outcomes of the discussion included consensus on Health, Wellbeing, and Sports: Agenda for Youth. The participants also emphasized the importance of knowledge sharing among G20 nations.

Under the guidance of Vice Chancellor, Chief executive Officer and Dean, Student Welfare, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, the Student Council of the University Organized this Yuvamanthan model G20 summit.

Event Outline:

The event was graced by the presence of Pro-Vice Chancellor, Registrar, Dean, Student Welfare of the University, along with the moderators and the HOIs. All the guests, delegates, moderators and the HOIs were welcomed by tilak and flowers, showcasing the Indian Culture. It commenced with the lamp lighting followed by welcoming speech by the President and Vice-President of the Student Council. The Registrar and Pro-Vice Chancellor were then cordially invited to the stage to address the gathering. The event was then bifurcated into 2 tracks – the leaders' track and the finance track.

Leader's track –

The presiding officer's track was skillfully moderated by the distinguished individuals, Dr. Pradeep Raghav and Dr. Prem Chandra. The core proceedings of the event unfolded as follows:

Opening Speeches:

1. Delegates representing each of the twenty countries participating in the event were given 90 seconds to present their countries' qualities, resources, problems, and proposed solutions. They also outlined an action plan to address their country's challenges. This phase of the event allowed delegates to showcase their knowledge and diplomatic skills.

Points of Information:

2. Following the opening speeches, a dynamic Q&A session unfolded, with each delegate raising points of information to question their counterparts about the problems in their respective countries. This interaction enhanced the depth and quality of the discussions.

Treaty Selection:

3. After the engaging opening speeches and points of information, the moderators selected four top treaties. These treaties were deemed as the most promising and comprehensive solutions to the discussed global issues. The delegates behind these treaties were asked to present them on stage.

Best Treaty Awards:

4. In the culmination of the event, the delegates representing Brazil and India's treaty (Nidhi and Himanshu respectively) were honored with the prestigious "Best Treaty" award. This recognition underscored the quality of their proposed solutions and action plans, reflecting their dedication and diplomatic expertise.

Awards and Recognitions:

In addition to the "Best Treaty" awards, the event recognized exceptional individual performances. The awards in this track were as follows:

- Best Delegate: The delegate of France (Ekansh Dixit) was conferred with the "Best Delegate" award, acknowledging their outstanding performance and diplomatic prowess.

Finance minister's track-

There were 16 finance ministers, representing their respective 16 countries, with Argentina, Turkey, European Union And Indonesia in absentee. The finance minister's track was skillfully moderated by the distinguished individuals, Dr. Dhiren Ajit Nair, Dr. Manoj Tripathi and Dr. Lubhan Singh. The core proceedings of the event unfolded as follows:

Raise of motion

5. Through the raise of hands, one motion was selected out of the five enlisted below –

- Promoting digital health infrastructure
- Complete well-being: Physical and mental health through traditional medicine and yoga
- Improving access to health financing for young citizens
- Prevention of substance abuse
- Promotion of indigenous sports

The motion taken into place was - Complete well-being: Physical and mental health through traditional medicine and yoga

6. Delegates representing each of the twenty countries participating in the event were then given 90 seconds to present their views on the raised motion wherein they were supposed to put their countries position, problems and the solutions in action which can be implemented in order to facilitate those solutions. They outlined an action plan to address their country's challenges. This phase of the event allowed delegates to showcase their knowledge and diplomatic skills.

Points of Information:

7. Following the raise of motion, a dynamic round of questions and arguments unfolded, with each delegate raising points of information to question their counterparts about the problems in their respective countries. They questioned the stated facts in their speech and the missed sections in order to gain points. Only 1 POI was entertained per delegate speech in verbal, and rest were transferred through chits via EB. This interaction enhanced the intellect of listening, critical analysis and the depth and quality of the discussions. During this point of parliamentary privilege was also raised which included informal query and whereabouts.

Position paper Selection:

8. The delegates of all the 16 countries presented the position paper in which they were supposed to identify a problem related to main theme, find a solution, lay a plan of action for implementing it and hence concluding it with loopholes and drawbacks which might be faced.

9. The moderators shortlisted 3 position papers, out of which, position paper presented by the finance minister of India was deemed as most promising and awarded as the best position paper.

10. It was then presented by the finance minister of India on the stage. This recognition underscored the quality of their proposed solutions and action plans, reflecting their dedication and diplomatic expertise.

Awards and Recognitions:

The event recognized exceptional individual performances. The awards in this track were as follows:

- Best Delegate: The delegate of India (Om Thakur) was conferred with the "Best Delegate" award, acknowledging their outstanding performance and diplomatic prowess.
