Objectivity of Activity: -The primary objectives of this lecture on language and communication skills development are to enhance participants' understanding of the fundamental components and dynamics of effective communication. By delving into verbal, non-verbal, written, and visual communication, the lecture aims to equip attendees with the necessary skills to articulate their ideas clearly and persuasively in various contexts. Participants will learn techniques to overcome common communication barriers, such as cultural and language differences, and develop strategies for active listening, giving and receiving feedback, and persuasive communication. Additionally, the lecture will focus on the importance of grammar, vocabulary, and reading and writing skills, providing practical exercises to reinforce these aspects. By the end of the session, participants will have a deeper appreciation for the role of communication in personal and professional settings and be better prepared to utilize modern technological tools to enhance their communication effectiveness. The ultimate goal is to foster a more confident, competent, and culturally sensitive communicator capable of navigating diverse social and professional landscapes.

Description of activity: - The activity designed for the lecture on language and communication skills development will be an interactive and comprehensive session aimed at providing both theoretical knowledge and practical application. Participants will engage in a variety of exercises, including role-playing scenarios to simulate real-life communication challenges, group discussions to foster collaborative communication, and writing assignments to enhance written communication skills. The session will also include active listening exercises and feedback sessions to develop critical listening and constructive feedback abilities. Through these interactive components, participants will not only learn about the different aspects of communication but also practice and refine their skills in a supportive and dynamic environment. The use of digital tools and platforms will be integrated to demonstrate their role in modern communication, ensuring that attendees are adept at leveraging technology for effective communication. This holistic approach aims to create a well-rounded learning experience that prepares participants to communicate confidently and effectively in diverse situations.

Outcomes of Activity: -

1. Enhanced Communication Skills
2. Active Listening and Feedback
3. Overcoming Communication Barriers
4. Technological Proficiency
5. Confidence in Public Speaking
6. Improved Writing Skills
7. Effective Group Communication
8. Cultural Sensitivity

Analysis of participant's feedback of Activity: -

The analysis of participants' feedback of the activity on language and communication skills development reflects a positive impact on their learning experience. Participants noted a significant improvement in their communication skills, particularly in areas such as active listening, giving and receiving feedback, and public speaking. Many participants highlighted the practical nature of the exercises, such as role-playing scenarios and group discussions, as highly beneficial in enhancing their ability to communicate effectively in various situations. The incorporation of modern technological tools and platforms received positive feedback, with participants expressing confidence in using these tools for digital communication. Cultural sensitivity and awareness were also cited as key takeaways, demonstrating a deeper understanding and appreciation for diverse perspectives. Overall, participants indicated a high level of satisfaction with the activity, recognizing its relevance and value in developing crucial communication competencies for personal and professional growth.

Report on Value Added Course “Advancing Towards English Efficiency”

The Department of Languages proudly conducted the Value Added Course “Advancing towards English Efficiency” for the 2023-2024 academic session. The course, open to M.A. students, attracted 18 enthusiastic participants. Starting from April 22, 2024, the classes were held daily from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Under the expert guidance of Dr. Rafat Khanam, the course coordinator, all students successfully completed the program. The course was meticulously designed to enhance English proficiency and build a strong linguistic foundation through advanced learning techniques, ultimately empowering students with superior language skills.

And the Bookmark were judged by Dr. Nishma Singh (Head, Department of Home Science) and Dr. Shalu Nehra on the basis of their concepts and decoration and ingenuity used in preparation. By seeing the hard work and creativity of the students it was very difficult to judge the competition but the judges impartially selected the winners and thus on the above ground Neha Chaudhary (M.Sc. I yr.) and secured the first position, Muskan Jain (B.Sc. II yr.) and Princy (B.Sc. III yr.) secured second position, and third position was secured by Ruchika and Vidhi (B.Sc. III yr.) while constellation position was given to Ananya Dua (M.Sc. II yr.), Surbhi Verma (M.Sc. II yr.) and Preeti Solanki (M.Sc. II yr.) as they were online connected with this activity.

Conclusion-After completion of these activities' students were aware that better sympathetic of copyright can lessen concerns about reasonable use and impartial dealing, and can increase self-assurance of employee and productivity. Copyright is a significant formula of protection that gives the student rights over demonstration, circulation, performance in public, and formation of derivative works from their copyrighted exertions. Likewise, students were sensitized about reading books that has a excess of benefits for mental well-being, and also can help to advance memory, concentration, and attentiveness. Plus, they made aware of

Organizes
A National Workshop
On

"Lesson Planning in Changing Scenario- NEP-2020"

Date: 23rd & 24th Sept. 2021

A Report

Department of Education, Faculty of Education, Swami Vivekanand University, Meerut organized a National level workshop on the topic "Lesson Planning in Changing Scenario- NEP-2020" on 23rd & 24th Sept. 2021. The purpose of the workshop was to enrich the student's knowledge regarding lesson planning. On this occasion Prof. Dr. V.P.Singh Vice Chancellor, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut., addressed the students of Faculty of Education by saying that young minds must prepare themselves for the challenges and opportunities that come their way with their fullest potential. He spoke that "Motivation is what gets you get started, he spoke that our great weakness lives in giving up. He further told that the most certain way to success is always to try just one more time.

On this occasion, Prof. Sandeep Kumar Dean Faculty of Education & Head Department of Education, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut. told that the pupil teachers should always stress on their value of time to get success in every work they wish to do, and prepare themselves to get easy things out of the way first, and organize everything according to the priorities. He further told the pupil teachers to stay stress free and welcome every opportunity in life.

The technical session of the workshop began with the welcome address of Prof. Dr. Seema Dhwan, one of the most renowned personality of the Department of Education, Hemwati Nandan Bahuguna Central University, Srinagar, Uttarakhand, India., as a resource person. She advised the pupil teachers that successful and unsuccessful people do not vary greatly in their abilities, but they always vary in their desires to reach their potential, she also gave some tips to the pupil teachers that they should always set long term goals to achieve what they want or wish from their life and train their mind to be solution orientated and take help always from knowledgeable and experienced mentors and friends. She also explained the steps of lesson planning in detail, all the students were very eager to listen to the resource person and the students incorporated the tips in their lesson planning for science subjects.

Prof Anoj Raj, Dean of Arts and social sciences & Head, Department of Education, Swami Vivekanand University, Meerut. proposed vote of thanks to the resource person Prof. Dr. Seema Dhwan, and said to the pupil teachers that lesson planning is very important, the routine and efforts determines one's achievement in life.

In the end, Dr. Bhuvnesh Sharma (Assist. Prof.), Department of Education, Faculty of Education, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut proposed thanks to the resource person specially for devoting her precious time and motivating all pupil teachers for the new approach of lesson planning. The whole program was coordinated by Dr. Sharma and she thanked all the students of Department of Education (online or offline) and specially of Mizoram Central University in the national workshop.

On the second day i.e. after the formal welcome, Dr. Bhuvnesh Sharma (Assist. Prof.) from Department of Education, SVSU, Meerut., invited Prof. Sandeep Kumar, Dean, Faculty of Education & Head, Department of Physical Education, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut. Prof. Kumar through his speech told the pupil teachers that a good lesson plan conveys the message to the students that what is important in the content which is been delivered to them in the class, and it describes various ways of learning, and the pupil teacher should prepare the lesson by taking care of individual differences. For this purpose, objectives must be clear to pupil teachers. They all must

The technical session of the workshop began with the welcome address introduction of Prof. Dr. Lok Nath Mishra, Director, Faculty Development Centre, Mizoram Central University, (A.P.) India, as a resource person. He stressed that the best objectives remain action-oriented and pupil teachers should focus on the most essential learning needs of the students, which are used to guide the teaching practice of a teacher and student learning. Whatever content the teacher is explaining the students to make them enable to read, write, and share them in our classrooms. The objectives definitely provide the teacher's a clear cut route-map to effective teaching, builds the confidence, works as a refresher tool and promotes a healthy learning environment.

Towards the end, Dr. Vibha Laxmi (Asso. Prof.), Department of Education, Faculty of Education, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut presented a summary of the two days workshop, and proposed thanks to the eminent speaker Prof. Dr. Lok Nath Mishra, for sharing valuable knowledge and motivating the pupil teachers to prepare their lesson plans in an efficient way.

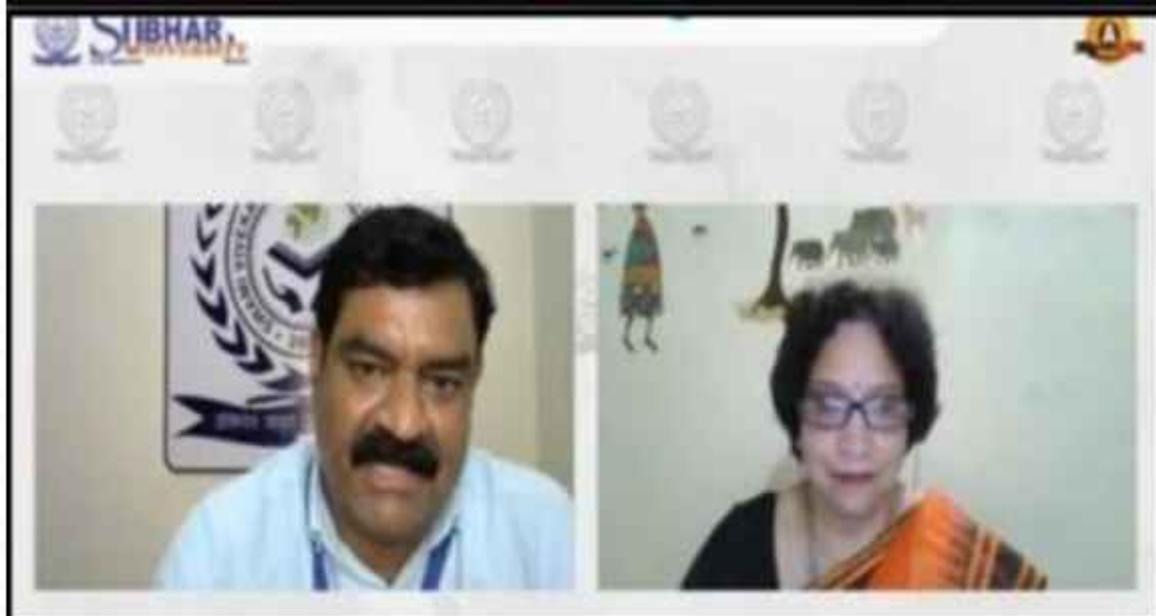

Dr. Rahul Sirohi (Asso. Prof.) Department of Education, FOE, SVSU, Meerut proposed vote of thanks, Prof Anoj Raj Dean Arts and social sciences & Head Department of Education, Swami Vivekanand University, Meerut, proposed vote of thanks to the resource person. He further said to the students that their real value lies in planning, it is their own schedule and efforts that decides what they achieve in their life.

Dr. Anoj Raj, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and Head, Department of Education, SVSU, Meerut conveyed thanks to Prof. Dr. Lok Nath Mishra for sparing time for the workshop on lesson Planning in the Department of Education and for answering all the queries asked by the students of Department of Education.

The whole program was coordinated by Dr. Bhuvnesh Sharma (Assist. Prof.) Department of Education, faculty of Education, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, and approx. 250 students of the Department of Education & other colleges of Mizoram Central University & HNB Central university also took part in the national workshop.

OBJECTIVE

To equip the students with effective copy editing skills

REPORT

Two hour workshop on "Language Lab & Communication Skills" was conducted on 08-02-2021 for students. It was delivered by Ms. Archana, Department of English, SVSU, Meerut, where she examined the reasons for poor communication skills in English, despite long years of English education.

OUTCOME:

The informative workshop evoked a positive feedback from the students, who received inputs on effective communication skills.

Language and Communication Skill Development

Nursing is a profession in which communication plays an important role. Nurses need language skills to communicate with the patients from different types of background. Keeping in mind these facts, language and communication skill development programmes are organized every year for the first year students of B.Sc Nursing & Post B.Sc Nursing. Language development is also a part of the curriculum in both the programme. The scheme was initiated from 2014-15 academic session.

The scheme is run in collaboration with Dept. of Language, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University. Panel discussions, role play and other techniques are included in training to improve the language and communication skills of the students.
