- Mr. Yajvendra Singh (Assistant Professor)– Member YS

The meeting commenced with a welcome address by the Chairman. The following points were discussed, and resolutions were passed:

Agenda & Discussions:

1. Review of anti-ragging initiatives and their effectiveness:

- The committee reviewed the implementation of anti-ragging initiatives, including orientation programs and the availability of grievance mechanisms.
- There have been no reported ragging incidents in the last semester.

Resolution:

- The committee decided to continue the current programs and increase their reach. Additional awareness sessions will be held during the upcoming orientation.

2. Implementation of awareness programs for new students:

- The committee discussed the need to conduct awareness sessions for new students at the beginning of each semester to inform them about the consequences of ragging.

Resolution:

- The next orientation program will include a dedicated session on anti-ragging awareness. The committee also agreed to distribute anti-ragging pamphlets to all new students.

3. Assessment of current surveillance systems and additional measures:

- The committee reviewed the effectiveness of existing surveillance systems and the number of cameras installed on college.

Resolution:

- The installation of additional CCTV cameras in common areas was approved. The committee also proposed regular patrols in the hostel areas during high-risk times.

4. Any other matter with the permission of the Chair:

- Mr. Ankit Srivastava suggested a campaign to remind students of the severe consequences of ragging and to make the reporting process more visible.

Resolution:

- The committee approved the creation of posters and digital notices to be placed around college, emphasizing the consequences of ragging and how to report incidents.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Chairperson, expressing gratitude to all members for their valuable insights and active participation. The commitment to achieving the objectives discussed and fostering a positive and productive environment was reaffirmed.
