Venue: Conference Room, BCSCHM

Members Present:

- Mr. Ankit Srivastava (Assistant Professor, BCSCHM)– Chairman Ankit
- Ms. Garima Jain Goel (Assistant Professor, BCSCHM)– Member Garima
- Mr. Yajvendra Singh (Assistant Professor, BCSCHM)– Member YS

The meeting commenced with a welcome address by the Chairman. The following points were discussed, and resolutions were passed:

Agenda & Discussions:

1. Review of anti-ragging activities carried out during the last semester:

- The committee reviewed the anti-ragging programs carried out, including awareness workshops and the distribution of anti-ragging materials.
- The feedback received from students indicated that the programs were effective, but more engagement was required.

Resolution:

- The committee will introduce more interactive workshops, including role-playing activities and group discussions, in the upcoming semester.

2. Role of faculty and staff in preventing ragging incidents:

- The committee discussed the critical role that faculty and staff play in identifying and preventing ragging incidents.

Resolution:

- Faculty members will be reminded during faculty meetings about their responsibility to report any suspicious behavior. Staff will also be encouraged to monitor common areas closely.

3. Measures to encourage peer-to-peer monitoring:

- The committee discussed encouraging students to act as monitors and report any cases of ragging they may witness.

Resolution:

- The committee approved the idea of creating a peer-monitoring system where selected students will be responsible for ensuring a safe environment and reporting any issues they observe.

4. Any other matter with the permission of the Chair:

- Mr. Ankit proposed the idea of organizing a competition for students to come up with anti-ragging slogans.

Resolution:

- A competition will be organized, and the best slogans will be displayed around the college.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Chairperson, expressing gratitude to all members for their valuable insights and active participation. The commitment to achieving the objectives discussed and fostering a positive and productive environment was reaffirmed.
