The meeting commenced with a welcome address by the Chairman. The following points were discussed, and resolutions were passed:

Agenda & Discussions:

1. Annual review of anti-ragging measures and effectiveness:

- The committee conducted a thorough review of the effectiveness of the anti-ragging measures implemented over the past year. The feedback indicated that the measures had been effective in preventing ragging incidents.

Resolution:

- The committee decided to maintain the current measures and incorporate new initiatives such as a student-driven anti-ragging campaign.

2. Improving anti-ragging campaigns for the upcoming academic year:

- The committee discussed how to make the anti-ragging campaigns more engaging for students, especially new students.

Resolution:

- The committee approved the creation of a video campaign featuring testimonials from students and staff about the importance of preventing ragging. The video will be shown during orientation.

3. Assessment of disciplinary actions taken in response to ragging complaints:

- The committee reviewed the disciplinary actions taken for ragging complaints and agreed that all cases had been handled promptly and in accordance with the regulations.

Resolution:

- The committee will continue to ensure strict enforcement of anti-ragging rules and ensure timely action in case of any complaints.

4. Any other matter with the permission of the Chair:

- Mr. Ankit Srivastava suggested organizing an anti-ragging seminar with legal experts to discuss the consequences of ragging and the legal actions that can be taken.

Resolution:

- The committee agreed to host the seminar and will finalize the date and speakers in the coming weeks.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Chairperson, expressing gratitude to all members for their valuable insights and active participation. The commitment to achieving the objectives discussed and fostering a positive and productive environment was reaffirmed.
