The meeting commenced with a welcome address by the Chairman. The following points were discussed, and resolutions were passed:

Agenda & Discussions:

1. Annual review of student welfare programs and feedback:

- The committee reviewed the feedback collected from students throughout the year. Most students appreciated the mental health initiatives, but there were suggestions to improve the availability of resources.

Resolution:

- The committee will focus on expanding mental health resources by hiring more staff and increasing the availability of sessions.

2. Discussion on future initiatives to enhance student well-being:

- Dr. Ankit Srivastava proposed introducing financial literacy workshops and time-management training for students.

Resolution:

- Financial literacy workshops will be scheduled for the first semester of 2025.
- Time-management training will be introduced as part of the new student orientation program.

3. Evaluation of counseling services and their effectiveness:

- The committee discussed the utilization rate of counseling services and identified the need for more targeted interventions for high-stress periods such as exams.

Resolution:

- The committee decided to introduce a more flexible scheduling system for counseling sessions during exam periods.

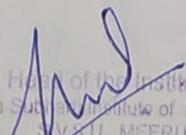

4. Any other matter with the permission of the Chair:

- Mr. Ankit Srivastava suggested creating a student welfare calendar to provide students with information about available services.

Resolution:

- A student welfare calendar will be created and distributed at the beginning of each semester

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Chairperson, expressing gratitude to all members for their valuable insights and active participation. The commitment to achieving the objectives discussed and fostering a positive and productive environment was reaffirmed.
