MEET

ACLS REPORT

Advance Cardiac Life Support training is organized by Subharti Medical College every month for the students who ever is willing to take part in this value-added course. Training is given as per the schedule/course content for 2 days from 9 am to 5 pm. Venue of training is Medical Council Hall, SMC/ CSSH.

This training has helped the participants to gain knowledge and hands on training regarding various aspects of Advance Cardiac Life Support. Feed backs were obtained from the participants and most of them expressed that they are confident enough to handle emergency situations after completion of the course. The candidates who successfully completed the course were provided a certificate of training. Feedback of the course is collected from the students at the end.
