ART Fragrance 2021

NEWS LETTER

Prof. (Dr.) Atul Krishna

Founder- Subharti Movement

My heart fills with joy to see that NBSCFF is celebrating a decade of achievement as it releases the 11th volume of its newsletter art fragrance. On this momentous occasion I felicitate the ever toiling students and staff of the college, under the able stewardship of Prof. (Dr.) Pintu Mishra. He is an epitome of perfection, honing the artistic skills of his students, which are essential for any budding artist. I am proud of the students of this institution who not only win laurels, but also get the best placements, earning the title of the best college in the region for their alma mater. The well qualified and experienced faculty have proved to be a mentor, guide and motivator to the new students, shaping them into the best of the best!

Mrs. Stuti Narain Kacker

Chancellor - Swami Vivekanand Subharti University

It gives me immense pleasure to learn that the Tenth newsletter- Art Fragrance – 2021 is being published by NBSCFF . I would like to convey my sincerest appreciation to the enterprising team, for the success of this event. I am sure that deliberations of this kind will provide not only the established but also the budding artists of our country, a platform for updating their knowledge & sharing their experiences with their brethren. My best wishes once again for the grand success of this news letter.

Prof. (Dr.) V. P. Singh

Vice Chancellor- Swami Vivekanand Subharti University

My heartiest congratulations on achieving yet another milestone by publishing the newsletter "Art Fragrance". I, on behalf of the University, Congratulate you for able guidance, hard work and creativity for publishing highly informative newsletter. It is an inspiration for all students & faculty members of the University. Looking forward to more & more such publications. Well done & keep it up. With best wishes.

Dr. Shalya Raj

CEO- Swami Vivekanand Subharti University

Nandlal Bose Subharti College of Fine Arts & Fashion Design has always been pride of the University. On this occasion of the release of their Newsletter "Art Fragrance", I would like to congratulate Prof. (Dr.) Pintu Mishra and his very sincere and hard working faculty on this achievement. The newsletter is beautiful way to portray the achievements, activities, awards and success of the students and faculties of NBSCFF has achieved. I wish you the best in all your endeavor.

Prof. (Dr.) Pintu Mishra

Principal, NB Subharti College of Fine Arts and Fashion Design

I'm very proud that NBSCFF is launching its 10th edition of the Newsletter "Art Fragrance". NBSCFF started as little sapling, sowed in the year 2009. Since then it has grown with each and every passing day with the efforts of the faculty members and students, who bring the laurels for the college. It is also with the cooperation and support from our VC sir and CEO Madam that we have reached such heights. I give my best wishes to it and hope many more editions of "Art Fragrance" in future.

Department of Fine Arts

Two Days National Art Webinar & Workshop

A national webinar and workshop were organized in the Dept. of Fine Arts on Friday 23-24 October under the leadership of Prof. Dr. Pooja Gupta, Head of the Department. He told that art seekers from all over the country should join online for the supremacy of traditional and modern styles in paintings. New styles and experiments in arts, possibilities in computer graphics, digital art market, sculpture and calligraphy were discussed between them. This national webinar and workshop was inaugurated by Chief Guest Dr. VP Singh, Vice Chancellor Subharti University and Principal Dr. Pintu Mishra. Vice Chancellor Dr. V.P. Singh said that the dominance of arts can be seen at every stage of life. Fine arts have unlimited options, it has become such a wide subject, the more deeply it is the curiosity to know more. It is like a pearl in an oyster, ordinary people appreciate artefacts, they should be associated with creativity, not just a product of beauty. By coming to the fine art department, there is communication of new energy. Principal Prof. Pintu Mishra welcomed all the guests and gave his blessings to all and inspired them to follow the path of Subharti. Dr. Pooja Gupta presented and conducted the report of the department. Dr. Sonal Bhardwaj and Dr. Anshu Srivastava introduced the invited artists. In the opening session, Dr. Archana Rani, Head of the Department of Visual Arts: Painting, R.G.P.G. College, said on the topic of different styles of painting, how the traditional styles have made their mark in painting even today. She became the mother of modern style and constantly flourished with new experiments. Art should be free from bondage. Just as new dimensions are emerging, such as engraving, graphic, reverse painting is in full swing. It seems that the art has become state-of-the-art. On this occasion, Dr. Sunil Vishwakarma, Head of the Department of Fine Arts, Mahatma Gandhi Kashi Vidyapeeth, Varanasi, started the workshop by drawing a live person, he explained the nuances of portraiture in minutes with some brush strokes. Along with him, Dr. Ritu Sangal, President, Culture Charaha Sansthan, taught the creation of paintings through Meenakari in a new way. In the two-day national webinar and workshop, Shashi from Delhi, Pragma Vikas Tyagi from Mumbai, Dr. Vandana from Kanpur, Dr. Amita Shukla from Aligarh, Dr. Annata, Farah from Meerut, Dr. Nazima Irfan, Shahbat, etc. participated. Ashish Mishra proposed vote of thanks to all.
