SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Annual Report 2025

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut

(Established under U.P. Govt. Act no. 29 of 2008 and approved under section 2(f) of UGC Act 1956)

Annual Report 2025 Leaving No One Behind: Advancing Equity, Inclusion and Equal Opportunities for All

- At Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, the commitment to Sustainable Development Goal 10 (Reduced Inequalities) reflects the University's responsibility to promote equitable access to education, opportunities and participation. The University recognizes that individuals may experience different social, economic, health-related and structural barriers and therefore promotes an institutional environment based on equality, inclusion, dignity, accessibility and respect for diversity. This approach reflects the SDG 10 principle that sustainable development cannot be achieved when people are excluded from opportunities and services.
- As a diverse higher-education institution, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University is committed to fostering a respectful, inclusive and enabling environment in which students, faculty and staff can learn, work, participate and progress irrespective of their circumstances. The University's approach extends beyond non-discrimination to include appropriate support, accessibility and reasonable accommodation for individuals and groups who may face additional barriers.
- For the 2025 reporting cycle, SVSU's SDG 10 contribution encompasses institutional policies, support mechanisms and relevant participation indicators relating to first-generation students, persons with disabilities, underrepresented groups, accessibility, disability support services and reasonable accommodation.
- Swami Vivekanand Subharti University views reducing inequalities as an ongoing institutional commitment. Through inclusive policies, support systems, accessible facilities, awareness initiatives and equitable opportunities, the University seeks to identify and address barriers and create conditions in which individuals can participate meaningfully, develop their potential and succeed. Through these efforts, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University contributes to the global vision of SDG 10 and the principle of leaving no one behind, while strengthening a university community founded on equity, opportunity, human dignity and social responsibility.

  "We believe that true progress begins when every individual is valued, every barrier is challenged, and every opportunity is accessible to all - leaving no one behind."

10.1 Research on Reduced Inequalities

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University (SVSU), Meerut presents this document as an institutional verification and contextual record for SDG 10 – Reduced Inequalities. The publication evidence addresses themes including population health burden, access to healthcare, disaster preparedness, antimicrobial resistance, financial protection, rights and citizenship, gender representation, education and equality of opportunity. Additional institutional material on intellectual property, consultancy and externally supported research is retained to show research translation, but its relevance is interpreted cautiously and is not treated as a substitute for THE biometric scoring inputs.

For the Times Higher Education (THE) Sustainability Impact Ratings, Metric 10.1 – Research on Reduced Inequalities carries 27% of the SDG 10 score under the current published methodology and is composed of three bibliometric indicators: 10.1.1 CiteScore (10%), 10.1.2 Field-Weighted Citation Impact (FWCI) (10%), and 10.1.3 Publications (up to 7%). THE derives research metrics from Elsevier bibliometric data using SDG-specific publication mapping, supplemented by publications identified through artificial intelligence. Accordingly, Tables 1–3 in this document are institutional verification and reconciliation records; they are not a self-calculated THE score. Tables 4–6 are supplementary contextual evidence and are not direct scoring inputs for Metric 10.1. Any cycle-specific field definition, bibliometric period or instruction displayed in the live 2027 THE portal should take precedence over this internal document.

10.1.1 Reduced Inequalities: Cite Score

Cite Score is a source-level bibliometric measure, but THE Metric 10.1.1 does not score the raw Cite Score number itself. The indicator measures the proportion of a university's eligible SDG 10 publications that appear in the top 10% of journals according to Cite Score. Table 1 lists 10 institutional research records with the source titles and Cite Score information presently available in the supplied table. Numerical values are recorded for The Lancet (8.7) and Heliyon (7.8); the other eight records show a dash. The table should therefore be used for source-level verification and reconciliation, not as an institutional calculation of top-decile performance.

10.1.2 Reduced Inequalities: FWCI

Field-Weighted Citation Impact (FWCI) compares the citation performance of an output with similar publications after normalisation. Under THE Metric 10.1.2, citation performance is normalised by publication type, year of publication and subject area, with subject classification based on Elsevier's ASJC system. Table 2 presents the FWCI values available for the same 10 institutional records included in Table 1 and is intended primarily as a verification record of the values currently associated with those outputs.

The FWCI values in Table 2 are retained exactly as supplied. Six records contain numerical values: three are recorded as 0, the Global Burden of Disease Study 2023 record is shown as 255.54, and the records on antibacterial drug-resistance management and birthright citizenship/prenatal tourism are shown as 1.29 and 1.22 respectively. Two records have blank FWCI cells and two show a dash; blank and dashed cells are not treated as zero in this narrative. These individual values should not be manually averaged, summed or otherwise converted into a THE institutional score because THE applies its own normalisation and eligible-publication mapping.

10.1.3 Reduced Inequalities: Publications

The publications indicator measures the scale of an institution's research output on reduced inequalities and is not normalised by institutional size. Table 3 contains 10 institutional bibliographic records spanning 2021–2025. It should be treated as a working reconciliation list rather than the definitive publication count used by THE. Eligibility for Metric 10.1.3 depends on the SDG 10 publication corpus, institutional affiliation and the bibliometric reference period applied to the 2027 cycle in the live portal/THE dataset. For that reason, the presence of a record in this institutional table does not by itself establish inclusion in THE's final publication count.

The subjects represented in Table 3 are diverse, including construction regulation, ethical considerations in digital healthcare, financial protection, the Global Burden of Disease Study, open and distance education, disaster-preparedness training, antibacterial drug-resistance management, rights and citizenship, women's representation in environmental policy, and equality of opportunity in education. Some records have an explicit inequality or inclusion dimension, whereas others may have a more indirect relationship. SDG 10 eligibility should therefore be based on Elsevier/THE mapping and verified bibliographic records rather than title interpretation alone.

Research Translation through Intellectual Property

Table 4 contains 71 intellectual-property rows as recorded in the supplied institutional evidence: 29 patents, 41 copyright entries and 1 design entry. These are table-entry counts and should not be interpreted as 71 unique IPR assets without a separate deduplication check, because recurring titles or registration references may appear in the institutional list. The patent portfolio includes themes potentially relevant to reduced inequalities, such as assistive footwear, remote disease diagnosis, accessibility-focused virtual assistance, non-invasive monitoring, medication adherence, telehealth, women's health, portable dental imaging, self-refraction, public-transport safety and interactive learning.

Within this portfolio, some entries show a clearer SDG 10 pathway than others. Examples include 'Extendable Footwear for Leg Deformity with Integrated Health', 'Portable Mobile Laboratory for Disease Diagnosis in Remote Areas', 'JARVO: An Intelligent Virtual Assistant Model for Enhanced User Interaction and Accessibility', 'Equal Property Rights', the smartphone-connected self-refraction system and the telehealth application. As recorded, the table contains 30 rows with the status 'Published' and 41 with the status 'Registered'. These figures describe the supplied inventory and should not be interpreted as direct THE 10.1 performance or as proof that every listed IPR has an equivalent reduced-inequalities outcome.

Consultancy and Professional Engagement for Equitable Access

Table 5 contains 10 consultancy/professional-engagement activities. One records a consultancy for organising a Dental Camp through the Department of Oral Pathology, Faculty of Dental Science, SVSU, with revenue of Rs.4,051. The remaining nine pharmacy-related entries cover supply-chain control, drug-licensing services, digital consultancy, market research, establishment of retail and wholesale pharmacies and, in several cases, employee awareness and training. The nine pharmacy rows account for Rs.5,50,000, giving a combined recorded consultancy revenue of Rs.5,54,051. These figures describe institutional professional engagement and are supplementary to Metric 10.1 rather than bibliometric scoring inputs.

The dental-camp consultancy has a readily identifiable community-health dimension and can support a broader SDG 10 narrative when beneficiary profile, location, services delivered and free/subsidised access are documented. The pharmacy consultancies may also be relevant where supporting records demonstrate improved medicine availability, affordability, geographic reach or responsible service delivery for underserved populations. Such impact claims should be proportionate to the available beneficiary and outcome evidence and should remain clearly separated from THE Metric 10.1 scoring.

10.2 First-Generation Students

1. Introduction

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, presents this report for Metric 10.2 on first-generation students for Academic Year 2025. The submission documents the participation of students who are identified in the University's maintained dataset as first-generation learners and places this figure in relation to the total enrolled student population for the same reporting period. The purpose of the report is to provide a clear, concise and auditable institutional account of the indicator, supported by consistent source records and a transparent proportion calculation.

For this submission, all students included in the supplied first-generation student dataset are considered first-generation students. The reported student figures are treated as full-time equivalent (FTE) values. The analysis is restricted to Academic Year 2025 so that the numerator and denominator refer to the same reporting period. Student-level names and personally identifiable information are not reproduced in this report; the underlying records are retained separately by the University as supporting evidence for verification, if required.

2. Institutional Commitment to First-Generation Learners

First-generation learners play an important role in making higher education more inclusive by opening new educational pathways for families without prior university experience. Their participation reflects the reach of higher education across diverse social backgrounds.

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University recognizes the importance of identifying and documenting first-generation students to better understand equitable access to education. Their representation highlights opportunities for students to pursue higher education and achieve their aspirations.

For the 2024–25 academic session, the University uses its maintained first-generation student records and corresponding enrolment data to calculate this indicator. This evidence-based approach provides a clear and reliable measure of first-generation student representation within the enrolled student population.

3. First-Generation Student Participation in Academic Year 2024 - 25

For Academic Year 2024-25, the University recorded 1311 FTE first-generation students out of a total enrolled student population of 3,520. On this basis, first-generation students constituted 37.24% of the enrolled population for the reporting period. This means that approximately eight out of every one hundred enrolled students represented in the institutional population were identified as first-generation learners.

The figure should be read as an institutional participation indicator for the specified academic session. It captures the proportion represented in the validated source data and provides a quantitative basis for reporting the University's first-generation student participation. Because both figures relate to the same academic year and are expressed on the same FTE reporting basis, the resulting percentage offers a consistent measure for institutional submission.

4. Quantitative Assessment and Proportion

Indicator	Reported Value	Reporting Basis
First-generation students	1311	FTE | A.Y. 2024-25
Total enrolled students	3,520	FTE | A.Y. 2024-25
First-generation student proportion	37.24%	1311 ÷ 3,520 × 100

Proportion of first-generation students = (1311 ÷ 3,520) × 100 = 37.24%

First-generation students as a proportion of total enrolled students, Academic Year 2024-25.

Summary

On the basis of the University's final data for Academic Year 2024-25, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University reports 1311 FTE first-generation students within a total enrolled population of 3,520 FTE students. The resulting proportion of first-generation students is therefore 37.24%. The figure has been prepared using a common reporting period and a consistent FTE basis, with student-level evidence retained separately for institutional verification.

The reported value provides a concise and evidence-based representation of first-generation participation at the University during the academic session. It is submitted as the University's institutional response for Metric 10.2 and reflects the final aggregate data maintained for the reporting period.

Advancing International Student Access through Scholarships and Financial Support

Summary:

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University (SVSU), Meerut, recognises that financial circumstances should not prevent deserving students from pursuing higher education. Through its International Student Admission Policy, 2020, the University has established scholarship provisions for eligible international students from various countries and regions, including African, Southeast Asian and SAARC countries. Section 15 outlines scholarship opportunities based on specified eligibility criteria, academic performance and regional categories, with provisions for tuition-fee concessions ranging from 10% to 50% under specified schemes. The policy also includes scholarship provisions for existing international students and alumni pursuing higher studies, with additional concessions possible in special cases. These measures reflect the University's efforts to ease financial barriers and widen access to educational opportunities.

During Academic Year 2024–25, SVSU recorded 3,520 FTE enrolled students, including 157 FTE international students. Country-wise screening identified 146 FTE students from countries classified as low-income or lower-middle-income under the World Bank's FY2024 classification, representing 4.15% of total enrolment.

10.4 Proportion of Students With Disabilities

Introduction: Advancing Inclusion and Accessibility in Higher Education

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University (SVSU), Meerut, recognises that every student deserves the opportunity to learn, participate and progress in an educational environment that respects individual differences and promotes equal opportunity. In alignment with Sustainable Development Goal 10 (Reduced Inequalities), the University acknowledges the importance of identifying barriers, promoting accessibility and fostering a sense of belonging for students with disabilities.

For the THE Sustainability Impact Ratings 2025, Metric 10.4, this submission presents student enrolment data for Academic Year 2024–25. During this period, the University recorded 3,520 full-time equivalent (FTE) students, including 4 FTE students with disabilities, representing 0.11% of the total student population.

These figures provide a quantitative snapshot of the representation of students with disabilities within the University. The data are drawn from institutional records, with supporting documentation maintained separately for verification and audit purposes while safeguarding students' personal information.

SVSU recognises that inclusive education extends beyond enrolment to creating an environment where every student can participate meaningfully and pursue their aspirations with dignity. Through transparent reporting and a continued commitment to equitable access, the University seeks to contribute to a more inclusive and accessible higher-education system, reflecting the global principle of leaving no one behind.

Quantitative Assessment and Proportion

Indicator	Reported Value	Reporting Basis
Total students	10,345 FTE	Academic Year 2024-25
Students with disabilities	4 FTE	Academic Year 2024-25
Proportion of students with disabilities	0.038%	4 ÷ 10345 × 100

Proportion of students with disabilities = (4 ÷ 10,345) × 100 = 0.038 %.

Summary:

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises admission to higher education as an important step in shaping an individual's future. Its Admission Policy, 2020, provides a clearly defined process for evaluating applications, verifying eligibility, and allocating seats in accordance with prescribed academic requirements and applicable regulations. The policy seeks to ensure that admission decisions are made through established procedures rather than arbitrary considerations.

The process begins with the publication of course and seat details through online and offline channels. Prospective students can access information through the University's website or seek guidance from admission counsellors. Depending on the programme, admission is granted through recognised entrance examinations, including NEET and the Subharti University Entrance Test (SNET), or on the basis of merit in the qualifying examination and/or a spot test, as applicable. The Admission Cell and the respective college verify applicants' eligibility and documents. Admission is confirmed in the University's ERP system after the required eligibility checks, document verification, fee payment, and confirmation of seat availability.

An important feature of the policy is its provision for reservation for eligible SC/ST/OBC categories in accordance with applicable laws and the State reservation policy. Separate provisions also address NRI and foreign national applicants under relevant government regulations. Defined procedures for withdrawal, fee refunds, transfers, and programme changes further clarify the rights and responsibilities of applicants.

Overall, the policy establishes a systematic and accountable admission process while supporting equitable access to educational opportunities. It reflects the University's commitment to fair assessment, responsible administration, and the removal of barriers to higher education, contributing to SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities.

10.6.2 Access To University: Track Underrepresented Groups' Applications

Introduction:

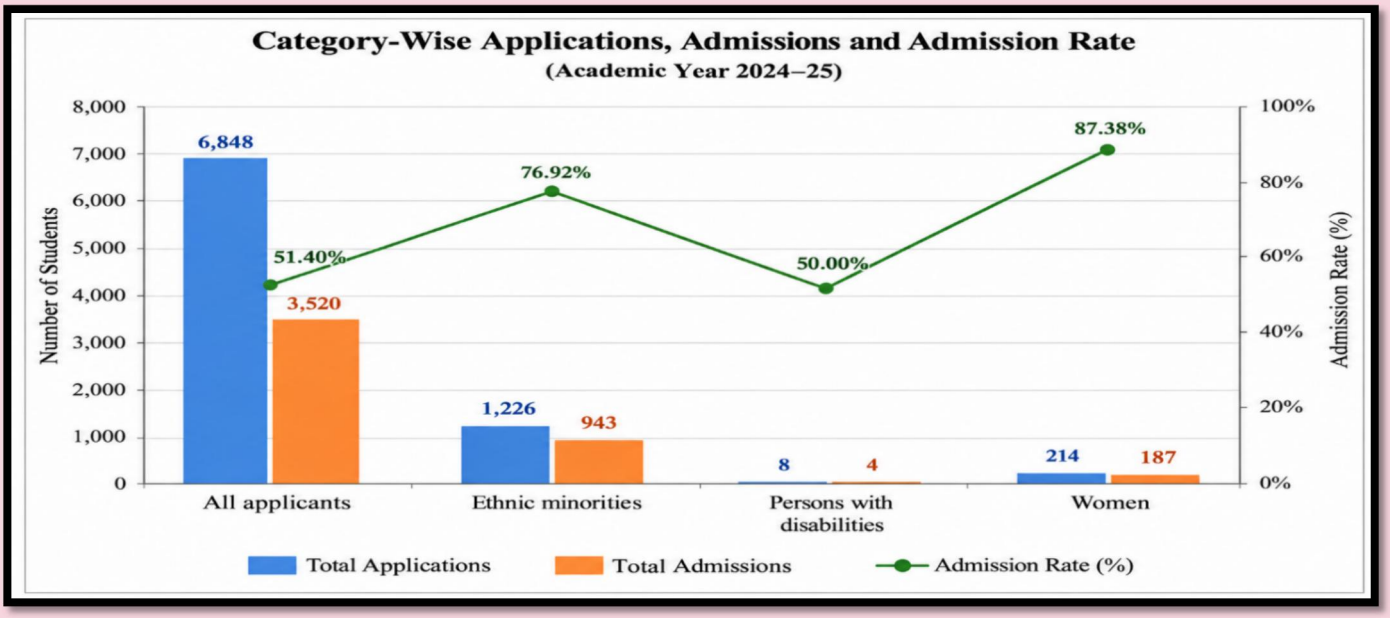

Every student's educational journey is shaped by different circumstances, opportunities, and challenges. Recognising these differences, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, places importance on understanding who applies for admission, who gains access to higher education, and which groups may remain underrepresented. The University acknowledges that meaningful inclusion requires not only providing educational opportunities but also understanding the representation of diverse groups within its applicant and student population.

For the 2025 reporting period, the University focuses on measuring and tracking applications and admissions among underrepresented and potentially underrepresented groups, including women, students from low-income backgrounds, ethnic minorities, non-traditional learners, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ+ individuals, and newly settled refugees, wherever applicable. Such data can help identify differences in participation, highlight areas requiring attention, and inform future admission planning and student outreach.

By strengthening data collection and reviewing representation across applicant groups, the University aims to develop a clearer understanding of access to its academic programmes and support evidence-informed decisions. This approach reflects a commitment to ensuring that educational opportunities remain responsive to the needs of a diverse society and that every aspiring learner has a fair opportunity to pursue higher education.

Applications and Admissions Overview

S. No.	Category	Total Applications	Total Admissions	Admission Rate (%)
1	All applicants	6,848	3,520	51.40%
2	Ethnic minorities	1,226	943	76.92%
3	Persons with disabilities	8	4	50.00%
4	Women	214	187	87.38%

During the academic year 2024–25, the overall admission rate was 51.40%. Among the specified categories, women recorded the highest admission rate (87.38%), followed by ethnic minorities (76.92%) and persons with disabilities (50.00%).

Summary

During the 2025 reporting period, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, received 6,848 applications and admitted 3,520 students. Among the reported groups, 943 of the 1,226 applicants from ethnic minorities secured admission. Of the 214 women applicants, 187 were admitted, while 4 of the 8 applicants with disabilities gained admission.

These figures offer a snapshot of how different groups participated in the University's admission process. The recorded admission rates were 76.92% for ethnic minorities, 87.38% for women, and 50% for persons with disabilities. Behind these numbers are individuals with different aspirations and educational journeys, making it important to understand both their participation and their experiences during admission.

The data provides a useful foundation for reviewing admission trends, recognising areas where further attention may be needed, and improving the way applicant information is collected and assessed. By regularly examining these figures, the University can make more informed decisions to support fair access to higher education and respond more effectively to the needs of its diverse applicant community.

10.6.3 Access To University Underrepresented Groups Recruit

Introduction:

Behind every application is an individual with aspirations, abilities, and the desire to build a better future. Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises the importance of ensuring that opportunities to study, teach, and work at the University are accessible to people from different backgrounds, including those who may face social, economic, or other barriers.

With this in mind, the University seeks to encourage participation from underrepresented groups among students, faculty members, and staff through planned outreach activities, communication of available opportunities, and established admission and recruitment procedures. These efforts aim to reach a wider pool of potential applicants and help individuals make informed decisions about pursuing educational and professional opportunities at the University.

The University also recognises that meaningful inclusion requires ongoing attention. Documenting recruitment initiatives and reviewing participation can help identify gaps, understand changing needs, and guide future improvements. Through these efforts, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University strives to make recruitment more accessible, responsive, and inclusive, contributing to the broader objective of reducing inequalities and ensuring that individuals have a fair opportunity to realise their potential.

SAMAVESH

Action Plan for Inclusive Recruitment of Students, Staff and Faculty from Under-Represented Groups

1. Preamble and Rationale

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University recognizes that equitable access to higher education and employment requires more than a general commitment to diversity. It requires planned, measurable and publicly evidenced action to identify where representation gaps exist, widen the pool of qualified applicants, remove avoidable barriers in admission and recruitment, and review whether those actions are producing meaningful change.

SAMAVESH establishes a university-wide framework for the planned recruitment of students, academic faculty and non-teaching staff from groups shown by institutional data to be under-represented. The framework is designed to complement applicable Indian law, statutory reservation requirements, eligibility standards and merit-based selection; it does not create arbitrary appointment quotas.

2. Aim

To establish a sustained, data-informed and accountable system through which University identifies under-representation and undertakes targeted actions to broaden recruitment and access for qualified students, faculty and staff.

3. Objectives

- Recruitment across student admissions, faculty appointments and non-teaching staff recruitment are monitored periodically.
- The under-represented identity are determined within the University, faculty, discipline, programme or employment category using lawful and appropriate institutional data.
- Embed inclusive, accessible and structured practices in faculty and staff recruitment.

4. Scope and Identification of Under-Representation

For the purpose of SAMAVESH, an under-represented group is one whose participation in a relevant University applicant, student or workforce population is demonstrably lower than an appropriate institutional, disciplinary or contextual benchmark. Categories will be determined from available data and applicable Indian regulatory frameworks.

5. SAMAVESH Action Cycle

MEASURE → IDENTIFY → PLAN → REACH → ENABLE ACCESS → RECRUIT FAIRLY → TRACK → REVIEW → PUBLISH

This cycle is repeated annually. It ensures that outreach and recruitment activities are linked to a documented representation gap and that outcomes are tracked periodically.

6. Planned Actions for Student Recruitment

1. Review applications, offers and admissions to identify participation gaps before the next admission cycle.
2. Undertake targeted school, college and community outreach in areas/groups showing lower participation in admissions.
3. Provide dedicated counselling, application guidance and follow-up to registered prospective applicants from identified groups
4. Actively communicate applicable scholarships, fee support and financial-aid options during recruitment and application support.
5. Provide accessible information and reasonable accommodation during application, counselling, tests or interviews where applicable

6. Planned Actions for Faculty Recruitment

1. Before a recruitment cycle, HR and the concerned academic unit will review available workforce data to identify disciplines, grades or leadership levels with material under-representation.
2. Vacancies will be disseminated through the University's normal channels and, where a gap has been identified, through additional relevant academic/professional networks to broaden the qualified applicant pool.
3. Recruitment advertisements will include an appropriate equal-opportunity/inclusion statement consistent with applicable law and University policy.
4. Selection will use predefined essential/desirable criteria and structured assessment to reduce avoidable subjectivity.
5. Reasonable accommodation will be available to candidates with disabilities during recruitment and interview processes.
6. For identified recruitment categories, HR will track applications, shortlisting, interviews and appointments in anonymize aggregate form.
7. Selection committees will receive a concise orientation on fair, structured and bias-aware recruitment. For selected senior or high-gap recruitment, the University may nominate a trained independent observer or additional panel member in accordance with University rules.

8. Planned Actions for Non-Teaching Staff Recruitment

Non-teaching staff recruitment will be reported separately from faculty recruitment so that evidence clearly demonstrates action across all employee groups.

- Annual workforce gap review by employment category and grade, using available lawful data.
- Expanded candidate sourcing where under-representation is identified.
- Inclusive and accessible vacancy information and selection processes.
- Predefined selection criteria and structured interviews/assessments.
- Reasonable accommodation for applicants with disabilities.
- Annual tracking of applicant → shortlisted → interviewed → appointed outcomes in aggregate form.

The SAMAVESH Steering Committee will review implementation Periodically.

10.6.4 ANTI-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Introduction:

Every individual deserves to be treated fairly, valued for who they are, and given the opportunity to participate without fear of discrimination. Recognising this, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, has introduced an Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy, effective from 31 August 2024, to promote fairness, respect, and equal treatment throughout the University community.

The policy reflects the University's commitment to addressing unfair treatment based on caste, gender, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, and other protected characteristics. It applies to students, faculty members, staff, contractual employees, visitors, and other stakeholders across the University's academic, administrative, and associated settings. By clearly defining unacceptable conduct and institutional responsibilities, the policy helps establish a shared understanding that discrimination and bias have no place in university life.

To support individuals who experience or report discrimination, the policy identifies institutional mechanisms such as the Equal Opportunity Cell, Minority Cell, Gender Sensitization Cell, and Grievance Redressal Cell. It also provides for confidential complaint handling, protection against retaliation, awareness programmes, and procedures for addressing grievances fairly and responsibly.

Through these measures, the University aims to create an environment where people feel safe to raise concerns, confident that their voices will be heard, and respected regardless of their background or circumstances. The policy represents an ongoing institutional commitment to fairness, accountability, and human dignity, while contributing to United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities.

Summary:

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises that a genuinely inclusive institution must do more than acknowledge equality; it must establish clear procedures to protect it in everyday institutional life. In this regard, the University has adopted a formal Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy (Policy No. U-07/SVSU/2024/1783), effective from 31 August 2024 and approved by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor. The policy sets out the University's approach to preventing discrimination and promoting fair treatment across its operations.

The policy covers students, teaching and non-teaching staff, contractual employees, consultants, vendors, and visitors. Its application extends to the University campus, faculties, departments, hostels, hospitals, outreach centres, and digital platforms. It addresses unfair treatment based on characteristics such as race, gender, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, and other protected characteristics. It also emphasises equitable access to academic, administrative, and co-curricular opportunities, including safeguards against caste-based exclusion, gender-based discrimination, and barriers to participation for persons with disabilities.

To translate these commitments into practice, the policy identifies institutional mechanisms such as the Equal Opportunity Cell, Gender Sensitization Cell, Minority Cell, Grievance Redressal Cell, Internal Complaints Committee, Ombudsperson, and Digital Complaint System. These channels are intended to help individuals raise concerns, seek appropriate support, and access established grievance-handling procedures.

The policy also highlights the importance of prevention through awareness programmes, diversity and inclusion training, orientation sessions, curriculum integration, and accessible infrastructure. Confidentiality safeguards, protection against retaliation, secure documentation, and sensitive handling of complaints further support individuals who come forward with concerns. Provision for policy review also allows the University to assess its effectiveness and make changes when required by applicable laws or institutional needs.

Overall, the policy brings together institutional responsibilities, preventive measures, support mechanisms, and grievance procedures within a single framework. It reflects the University's commitment to ensuring that people are treated fairly, concerns are handled responsibly, and discrimination is addressed through established processes.

10.6.5 University Diversity Officer

Introduction

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University has established an institutional Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) framework that identifies the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) as an institutional mechanism for promoting inclusion, equality and support for disadvantaged groups.

The EDI Policy is Policy No. U-07/SVSU/2024/1803 and records an effective date of 03/09/2024. The policy is reviewed by the Registrar and approved by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor. On page 4, the policy expressly identifies the Equal Opportunity Cell as an institutional mechanism and states that the EOC promotes inclusive practices within the University and provides guidance and support to disadvantaged groups.

The policy further assigns the Equal Opportunity Cell, Gender Sensitization Cell and Internal Complaints Committee responsibility for proper implementation and monitoring of the policy, inclusive teaching and working practices, diversity and equality, and awareness/capacity-building activities including workshops, seminars, awareness campaigns on equality and human rights, and training for staff and students on inclusive practices.

The policy applies to all faculty, colleges, departments, centres and community outreach wings of the University and to activities conducted within or outside the campus under University authority. This provides direct evidence that the diversity/equality mechanism is institution-wide.

Summary:

An inclusive university is one where people feel that their needs are recognised, their concerns matter, and they have access to the support needed to participate fully. At Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, this commitment is reflected in the establishment of the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) under the Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) Policy, effective from 3 September 2024 and approved by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor.

The EOC has an important role in translating the University's commitment to equality into institutional practice. Under the EDI Policy, the Cell supports disadvantaged groups, promotes inclusive teaching and working practices, and contributes to implementing and monitoring equality and inclusion measures. Its responsibilities also include encouraging awareness of diversity and human rights, helping students and staff recognise and report discrimination or harassment, and supporting workshops, seminars, awareness campaigns, and training on inclusive practices.

The Cell's operational structure was further strengthened through a Registrar-issued reconstitution order dated 16 January 2025, which identifies its chairperson and members and provides for regular meetings. The order also directs the Cell to identify persons with disabilities and elderly persons on campus and recommend measures to help create a barrier-free environment. This reflects an effort to consider practical accessibility needs alongside broader institutional commitments to inclusion.

Together, the EDI Policy and the 2025 reconstitution order demonstrate the University's formal arrangements for promoting equality, supporting underrepresented and disadvantaged groups, and addressing barriers to participation. For THE Sustainability Impact Ratings, SDG 10.6.5, the documents provide evidence of the EOC's existence, assigned responsibilities, and operational structure. To demonstrate public accessibility, the University should also provide a verified official website link to the published EDI Policy or EOC information

10.6.6 Support for Underrepresented Groups

Introduction:

Every individual has different circumstances, responsibilities, and aspirations that shape their educational and professional journey. Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises that sometimes the right guidance, financial assistance, access to learning resources, or support with family responsibilities can make a meaningful difference in a person's ability to learn, work, and progress.

With this understanding, the University has introduced various support measures to address the diverse needs of its community. These include a student mentoring system, educational concessions for eligible staff members, and free access to educational resources for individuals who are not enrolled at the University. The Policy on Non-Discrimination Against Woman, Policy on Non-Discrimination for Transgender, and Policy for Woman's Application, Acceptance-Entry and Participation at the University reflect its attention to women's participation and the fair treatment of transgender individuals. The Maternity Policy and crèche facility further recognise the importance of supporting maternity-related needs and helping individuals manage childcare responsibilities alongside their academic or professional commitments.

Together, these initiatives reflect the University's understanding that meaningful support goes beyond formal policies. It also involves recognising everyday challenges and providing practical assistance wherever possible. Through mentoring, educational concessions, access to resources, and family-support measures, the University strives to make learning and working more accessible, helping individuals pursue their aspirations with greater confidence and a stronger sense of belonging.

Description:

Shaheed Baba Deep Singh, Department of Home Science, Swami Vivekanand Subharti University commemorated International Women's Day on March 11, 2025. Along with other faculty members, Dr. Shruti Pokhriyal, an assistant professor in the Department, led a discussion with students about gender stereotypes and the importance of challenging them. International Women's Day, which was first acknowledged by the United Nations in 1977, is observed to honour women's accomplishments worldwide and to foster support for their rights and involvement in the political and economic spheres of society.

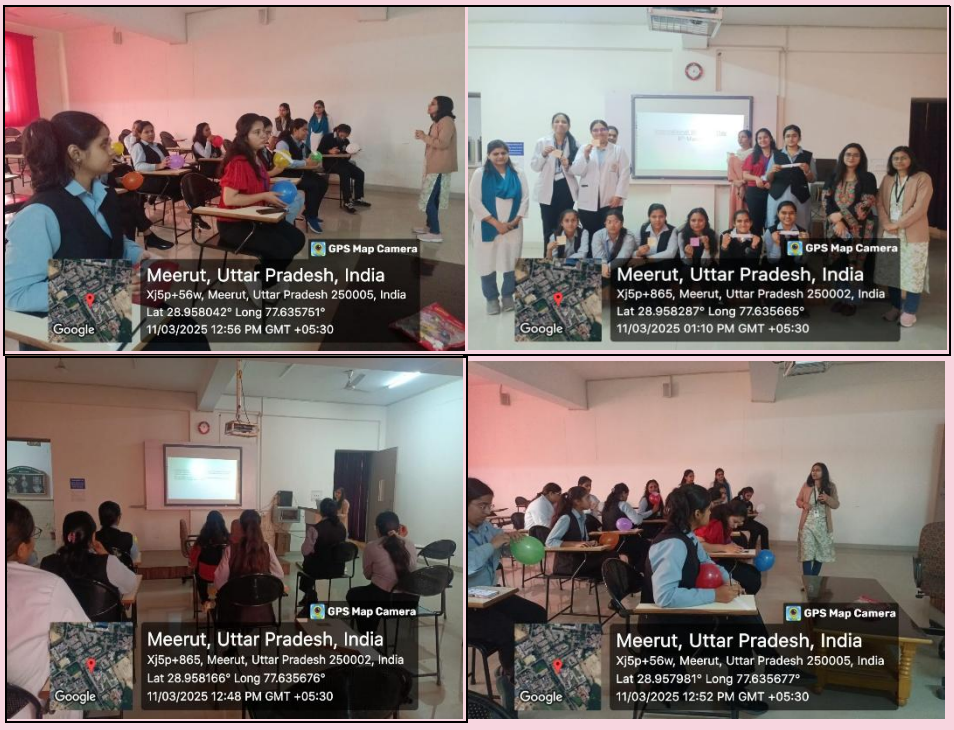

During the activity, the students were prompted to express their understanding of stereotypes and to provide examples specifically related to women. Some examples shared by students included the belief that women are poor drivers, they struggle with mathematics, and that their primary role is to manage the household. Following this, students were instructed to jot down a stereotype they had either encountered or heard about on a piece of paper. Then they were asked to blow a balloon and stick their stereotype onto the balloon. A few selected students then shared their stereotypes with their peers. Faculty members facilitated a reflective discussion on the origins of these stereotypes and how they continue to be reinforced. It was emphasized that there is a need to confront these stereotypes. By the end of the activity, students were asked to pop their balloons, an action that many found enjoyable. The event turned out to be a success with the support from all faculty and the Head of Department, Dr. Nishma Singh.

Summary

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises that people may need different kinds of support to learn, work, and progress with confidence. To address these needs, the University provides mentoring, educational concessions for eligible staff, access to learning resources, and policies supporting women's participation, transgender inclusion, and maternity-related needs. Its crèche facility also offers practical support for individuals balancing childcare with academic or professional responsibilities.

The University further addresses discrimination, harassment, and accessibility through institutional policies, support mechanisms, and awareness activities. Cells and committees, including the Equal Opportunity Cell, Gender Sensitization Cell, Minority Cell, Grievance Redressal Cell, and Internal Complaints Committee, provide channels for guidance and grievance redressal. Mentoring, workshops, training, and disability-related initiatives further contribute to these efforts.

Together, these measures reflect the University's commitment to understanding people's needs, reducing barriers, and creating opportunities for meaningful participation. By combining institutional policies with practical support, the University strives to foster an environment where individuals feel respected, supported, and better equipped to pursue their aspirations, in alignment with Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities.

Introduction

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, recognises that every individual should have the opportunity to learn, work, and participate in university life with dignity and confidence. The University also reports 73 employees with disabilities and seeks to support their participation through an inclusive working environment and appropriate workplace adjustments.

The University's efforts extend beyond its campus through awareness programmes, disability sensitisation activities, community-based rehabilitation, surveys, and health camps. These initiatives offer screening, counselling, referrals, rehabilitation guidance, and information about assistive devices, disability certificates, and government schemes, while encouraging families and communities to better understand disability and reduce stigma.

Together, these efforts reflect the University's commitment to recognising individual needs, reducing barriers, and making participation more accessible. TOILETS:

Accessible toilets are toilets that have been specially designed to better accommodate people with physical disabilities. Persons with reduced mobility find them useful, as do those with weak legs, as a higher toilet bowl makes it easier for them to stand up. Additional measures that can be taken to add accessibility to a toilet include providing more space, adding grab bars to ease transfer to and from the toilet seat, and providing extra room for a caregiver if necessary. Some countries have requirements concerning the accessibility of public toilets. Toilets in private homes can be modified (retrofitted) to increase accessibility.

Divyangjan Friendly, Barrier-Free Environment

Policy documents and information

The University is sensitive to the need of differently abled and promotes inclusiveness. Several steps as outlined below have been taken to assist divyangjan.

* Built environment with ramps / lifts for easy access to classrooms.
* Disabled friendly washrooms.
* Signage including tactile path, lights, display boards and signposts.
* Assistive technology and facilities for persons with disabilities (Divyangjan) accessible website, screen reading software, mechanized equipment.
* Provision for enquiry and information: Human assistance, reader scribe, soft copies of reading material, screen reading.

Objectives:

- To ensure that students with disabilities get equal opportunities to explore their educational potentials.
- To provide a nurturing and motivating environment for students with learning disabilities to accommodate their pedagogic needs.
- To eradicate any kind of stigmatization and segregation so that they can become confident individuals. The infrastructural facilities at our Institute are Divyangjan friendly to make the learning environment more convenient for the differently-abled students.

All the buildings in the University are accessible at ground floor with the provision of ramps with steel railings. All upper floors are accessible by the provision of lifts in all the buildings. A total 24 lifts are operational in the campus. The lifts are equipped with the floor announcement system and has Braille inscribed buttons. These are regularly maintained through an Annual Maintenance Contract.

All the buildings in academic area as well as administrative area have been provided with separate toilets for differently abled persons at every floor. These are fully functional and equipped with all required accessories. Each floor has distinct colour code of doors and corridor tiles as an additional provision to help the differently abled persons.

The campus has adequate characteristics for a fully compliant disabled friendly campus such as signage, tactile path, lights, display boards and signposts as well as assistive technology and facilities for persons with disabilities (Divyangjan) such as screen reading software, mechanized equipment. The University has full provision for enquiry and Human assistance, reader scribe, soft copies of reading material, etc.

Two entrances for easy and proximate entry and exit.

Lift facility is also provided for smooth functioning.

BROCHURE ON BARRIER FREE ENVIRONMENT

NANDLALBOSE COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS AND FASHION DESIGN

Faculty of Fine Arts provides barrier-free environment where people with disabilities can move about safely and freely and use the facilities within the built environment. The environment supports the independent functioning of individuals so that they can participate without assistance in everyday activities within the campus. Buildings / places / transportation systems are made barrier free.

ICT TOOLS :

The benefits of ICT in education is of such that students in the classroom can all learn from the curriculum material. Students with special needs are no longer at a disadvantage as they have access to essential material and special ICT tools can be used by students to make use of ICT for their own educational needs. Despite this, it opens up new issues related to the 'digital divide' and providing access to ICT tools and resources for those who are less fortunate.

Wheelchair:

Student with physical impairments may present with walking limitations ranging from impaired walking to no walking. Often mobility aids or wheelchairs are required to compensate for these difficulties .This will focus on the effects of providing a wheelchair to students whose mobility is significantly impaired to help them 'get around'; on participation, performance of activities and social inclusion.

Physical impairment with associated mobility limitations adversely affects the physical, cognitive and sensory development of a student to varying degrees, with subsequent adverse impacts on health and wellbeing

Having mobility through the use of a wheelchair is reported to support both the cognitive and psychosocial development of children with physical disabilities

By supporting these students to access mobility in the form of a wheelchair it is hoped that the other domains can be positively influenced. However, there may be a number of barriers to the students using their wheelchair successfully, which may include social, attitudinal and environmental barriers to the student's acceptance and use of the wheelchair. These barriers range from inaccurate or late fitting of the chair with its accessories.

RECEPTION COUNTER & PERSONAL ASSITANCE:

The Reception Counter provides all the needed information to the differently-abled and human assistance.

A college reception area is more than skin deep. A friendly atmosphere helps to reflect the character and ethos of our organization. But the reception area has more purposes than just being an entranceway to our building . It is likely to be a fully functioning central hub for our college where all the administration, paper storage and IT solutions are handled daily. The flow of people within this space has been carefully considered. our reception area is reflecting the great place that your NBSCFF is.

Visitors and parents get an immediate sense of our ethos, students, or staff feel pride in where they are. First impressions are important to human interaction, an ongoing uplift more so.

Subtle cues in a core area improve behaviour, or engagement for students. With reception is near the main office, staff visits daily, the right environment helps their morale and productivity.

RAMP:

Ramp-Rails, an inclined plane, are built in addition to staircases in the Nandlal Bose Subharti College of Fine Arts And Fashion Design ,SwamiVivekanand Subharti University. The ramps are carefully designed as per specifications to be used by the differently abled people.

A wheelchair ramp is an inclined plane installed in addition to or instead of stairs. Ramps permit wheelchair users, as well as people pushing strollers, carts, or other wheeled objects, to more easily access a building, or navigate between areas of different height

Building access ramps are an essential addition to any building that needs to be accessible to all. Simply put, building access ramps are specially designed platforms created to allow wheelchair users, or those with limited mobility, to gain access to various areas of a building.

LIFT

College buildings have provision of lift for barrier free access for students, staff, visitors and differently abled people. A lift man also apopointed for the smooth functioning and for safety purpose . he knows each and everything about lift system to make otherone comfortable and safe.

Toilets:

Accessible toilets are toilets that have been specially designed to better accommodate people with physical disabilities. Persons with reduced mobility find them useful, as do those with weak legs, as a higher toilet bowl makes it easier for them to stand up. Additional measures that can be taken to add accessibility to a toilet include providing more space, adding grab bars to ease transfer to and from the toilet seat, and providing extra room for a caregiver if necessary. Some countries have requirements concerning the accessibility of public toilets. Toilets in private homes can be modified (retrofitted) to increase accessibility.

DIFFERENTLY ABLED FRIENDLY RESTROOM

There are two differently abled friendly restrooms in A Block and in D Block. These accessible restrooms carry the fixtures and fittings that are comfortable and convenient to the differently abled people. Nonslip floor, sliding door and grab bars provide easy access to the differently abled people.

SIGN BOARDS:

Sign boards ensure visually impaired persons are able to familiarize with the road and path. Tactile sign on handrails at the ends of a staircase, guide the visually impaired.

Providing Special Equipment to augment Educational Services for Differently abled Persons:

Differently-abled persons require special aids and appliances for their daily unctioning. These aids are available through various schemes of the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment. In addition to the procurement of assistive devices through these schemes, the higher education NBSCFF have special learning and assessment devices to help differently-abled students enrolled for higher education. In addition, we have provided Readers to visually challenged students need. Availability of devices such as computers with screen reading software, low-vision aids, scanners, mobility devices, etc., in our NBSCFF would enrich the educational experiences of differently-abled persons. Therefore, our colleges are encouraged to procure such devices and provide facility of Readers for visually challenged students in future also.

10.6.9 Disability Access Scheme

Introduction:

Swami Vivekanand Subharti University, Meerut, believes that every person should have a fair opportunity to learn, work, grow, and participate in university life without facing unnecessary barriers. Recognising that persons with disabilities may have different needs and may require specific forms of support, the University has developed the Disability Access Scheme under the Subharti Disability Advisory Service Centre (SDASC) to provide a more structured, supportive, and accessible environment.

The Scheme aims to ensure that persons with disabilities know where to seek assistance and can access appropriate support with dignity and respect. It brings together faculty mentoring, academic guidance, accessible learning resources, examination accommodations, assistive technology, counselling, specialist referrals, and career and placement support. It also recognises the importance of workplace adjustments and appropriate assistance for employees with disabilities. Through coordination among SDASC, academic departments, administrative units, and relevant support professionals, the Scheme seeks to make assistance more responsive to individual needs.

At its heart, the Scheme is about listening to individuals, understanding the barriers they may experience, and helping them identify practical ways to overcome those barriers. It emphasises confidentiality, equal opportunity, reasonable accommodation, and respect for individual choices. Regular feedback and review can further help the University understand what is working well and where additional support may be needed.

The Scheme reflects the principles of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD) and Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities, particularly the promotion of inclusion and equal opportunity. Through this initiative, the University seeks to strengthen a culture in which persons with disabilities are not merely provided access to facilities, but are supported in their participation, independence, confidence, and overall development.
