2. Anti-Ragging Cell -The Anti-Ragging Cell is established to prohibit any behavior by students, whether verbal, written, or through actions, that results in teasing, treating, or handling a fresher or any other student with rudeness. This includes engaging in rowdy or undisciplined activities that cause or are likely to cause annoyance, hardship, psychological harm, or instill fear or apprehension in any fresher or student. Furthermore, it addresses compelling any student to perform acts they would not ordinarily undertake, which may induce feelings of shame, torment, or embarrassment, thereby adversely affecting their physical or psychological well-being. Such actions, whether intended to derive sadistic pleasure or to demonstrate power, authority, or superiority over a fresher or any other student, are strictly prohibited. The objective is to eradicate ragging in all its forms from universities, deemed universities, and other higher educational institutions across the country by enforcing these Regulations, preventing its occurrence, and punishing those who engage in ragging as stipulated in these Regulations and the applicable laws.
