Description:

On 15th December 2025, Jyotirao Phule Subharti College of Physiotherapy (JPSCP) successfully organized a debate competition on the theme “Hamara Samvidhan, Hamara Swabhimaan”, with the objective of creating awareness among students about the importance and values of the Indian Constitution.

The event commenced with an inaugural address by the Principal, Prof. Dr. Amit Kumar Goel, Jyotirao Phule Subharti College of Physiotherapy. In his enlightening speech, he emphasized the significance of the Indian Constitution, highlighting its role in safeguarding democracy, ensuring equality, justice, and liberty, and shaping responsible citizens.

Following the inaugural session, the debate competition began, in which enthusiastic students actively participated and presented their views with confidence and clarity. The participants articulated their arguments on constitutional ideals, fundamental rights and duties, and the relevance of the Constitution in contemporary India. The competition provided a platform for students to enhance their critical thinking, public speaking, and analytical skills.

The judges evaluated the participants based on content, clarity of thought, confidence, and presentation skills. The audience also gained valuable insights into the constitutional framework and its impact on society.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, judges, organizers, and participants for their cooperation and support. The debate competition was a great success and effectively instilled a sense of constitutional pride, awareness, and democratic values among the students.

Glimpses of the Event:

Outcome of the Activity:

- Enhanced constitutional awareness: Students developed a better understanding of the Indian Constitution, including its values, principles, and democratic framework.
- Encouragement of active citizenship: The competition motivated students to reflect on their rights and duties as responsible citizens.
- Strengthened sense of national pride: The event fostered respect and pride for the Constitution as a symbol of India's unity, justice.
