Report prepared by	:	Dr. Sarika Tyagi
--------------------	---	------------------

OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY

- To create awareness about gender inequality among Villager's.
- To sensitized them regarding Right to education.
- To aware students regarding New Criminal Laws.
- To motivate students regarding Good Samaritan Laws.

DESCRIPTION:-

Sardar Patel Subharti Law Institute, Swami Vivekananda Subharti University, Meerut Under the direction of Director of the Subharti Law College Mr. Rajesh Chandra (Former Justice, Prayagraj, High Court, Uttar Pradesh) and under the guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Vaibhav Goel Bhartiya, Dean, Subharti law college organized a Legal awareness and sensetization program in village Ghat to make the villagers aware about Gender in equality, Right to education, New criminal laws, Good Samaritan Laws. Dr. Sarika told the villagers about Gender equality is a fundamental human right. Gender-based discrimination and bias violate this basic human right, causing inequalities between men and women. Gender inequalities occur everywhere; and at every stage of life, beginning with childhood or even before birth. Gender inequality is discrimination based on sex or gender, causing one sex or gender to be routinely privileged or prioritized over another. We should not make any discrimination on the bases of sex and should treat everyone equal. Ms. Anshika B.A.LL.B. Students told about the The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009 in India, based on Article 21A of the Constitution, makes free and compulsory elementary education for children aged 6 to 14 a Fundamental Right and she encouraged the villagers to take the education of their children on priority.

Karan B.A.LL.B. student told about The "Criminal Law Amendment Act 2023" is not a single act, but rather the new criminal laws of India, which include the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) 2023, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) 2023, and Bharatiya Sakshya (BS) Act 2023. These laws replace the Indian Penal Code (IPC), Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), and the Indian Evidence Act, respectively, and introduce significant changes, such as making certain
